In the quarter, the Company saw continued success from the introduction of high-impact products supported by elevated marketing programs with the launch of the Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtle collection. The Company also announced an expansion of its strategic partnership with Macy's. In addition to the annual appearance of a themed float in the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade[®], Build-A-Bear will introduce five seasonal shop-in-shop locations within leading Macy's retail stores and will be showcased in their Santaland[®] attractions in two of these locations.
- Rationalize expense structure and leverage SG&A expenses, while enhancing product margins with end-to-end improvements in its supply chain and ongoing value engineering of product designs. For the first nine months, retail gross margin increased to 42.3%, a 270 basis point improvement from the prior year and adjusted SG&A as a percent of total revenues was 41.0%, a 60 basis point improvement from the prior year.
- Build on core competencies and leverage brand equity into new revenue streams. The Company expects to continue to evolve its organizational structure, acquire key talent and upgrade its information technology infrastructure in order to further leverage the strength of the Build-A-Bear brand as it develops new business categories to generate incremental profit and revenue streams.
