

Build-A-Bear Workshop Bear Hugs Foundation Awards Grants to Children's Health and Welfare Organizations Across the United States

September 13, 2007

Funding will serve over 24,000 beary special children

ST. LOUIS (September 13, 2007) — The Build-A-Bear Workshop Bear Hugs Foundation is awarding $109,165 in cash grants to 22 children's health and wellness programs across the United States. The grants are funded with the help of Champ—A Champion Fur Kids, a furry friend available in all Build A Bear Workshop® stores. With the sale of each Champ, one dollar is donated through the Build-A-Bear Workshop Bear Hugs Foundation to organizations and programs that help children by researching childhood diseases, promoting child safety, and serving children with special needs. Champ's children's health & wellness grants are awarded twice annually following review by the Board of Directors of the Build-A-Bear Workshop Bear Hugs Foundation.

“We are proud to partner with Build-A-Bear Workshop Guests to help these organizations make the world a healthier and happier place for kids and families,” said Matt Oldani, manager of the Build-A-Bear Workshop Bear Hugs Foundation.
